

Yealink Security Support Period Statement

At Yealink, we prioritize the security of our products and services. We are committed to continuously monitoring, identifying, and resolving any security vulnerabilities that may arise within the offerings we sell, produce, have produced, and the services we operate throughout the defined support period.

To ensure transparency and keep our customers well-informed, all security updates related to Yealink will be promptly disclosed on this website.

In the event that the defined support period is extended, we will make every effort to update the support period publication as soon as possible.

We want to assure you that once the support period is published, it will not be shortened.

Thank you for choosing Yealink as your trusted partner.

On behalf of Yealink

NOTE:

Support period: the minimum length of time, expressed as a period or by an end-date, for which a manufacturer will provide security updates

This definition focuses on security aspects and not other aspects related to product support such as warranty.
